TEETER WARNS ABOUT "SIDING BOYS" IN AREA

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter today warned residents of the county against signing any roofing, siding or other contract in which "something is purported to be given for nothing" without thorough study of the contract, preferably with one's own lawyer.

The warning came because of complaints to the district attorney and local state police that the "siding boys are operating in the county again."

Sevenal years ago several men went to jail on fraud charges as a result of siding "deals" and the district attorney said: "The reports we have received sound exactly like the propositions put forth by those men.

"MODEL HOME" PLAN

At that time a number of countians were victimized by "high pressure" salesmen from outside the county who convinced local residents to sign a paper to permit aluminum siding to be placed on their homes. The salesmen promised the siding would cost nothing because the home was to be used as a "model house" and the house owner would be reimbursed for sales to other homeowners in the area.

Later the homeowner discovered he had signed a judgment note without knowing it, and found the contract contained no provision about "mode! home" operations. The companies, when contacted, said the salesmen had no right to make any such promises and they weren't binding.

Teeter said, "There are numerous variations of the game, and one should investigate most care- time in two months that payments fully if promised something for were made on the debt. Last nothing. Teeter said the "something for to sell siding and roofing, "but just about everything else." York County recently reported 28 judgments entered against residents there in an "owner-advertiser plan" sale of automobiles. The proposition there was that the person receiving the car would have it paid for by purchases made by other persons seeing the auto. The next thing that happened was the filing of judgment notes against the persons receiving the

Allies To File Direct Protest Against Reds' Deeds In Berlin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER WASHINGTON (AP) - The

United States, Britain and France are drafting a direct protest to Moscow against East Germany's closing of the border between East and West Berlin to cut off the flight of refugees from communism.

Western diplomats said the protest, following formal complaints made in Berlin Tuesday, will go to the Kremlin in the very near future, on a government-to-government level.

Representatives of the three Western powers and West Germany were to meet at the State Department today to work on the draft and to continue efforts to develop other measures which may be taken because of the refugee blockade.

Progress on development of the countermeasures, reported to include economic sanctions against East Germany, was slower than had been expected when the work started Mon-

Meeting at the engine house here to discuss a need for securing "stand-by" equipment to be used in event of failure of the present radio transmission system in the Quick Call center, the committee decided to go further than that and solve the need for stand-by facilities by purchasing new equipment that would extend the usefulness of the present Quick Call office, and then place the present transmitter on a stand-by basis in event of failure of the proposed new transmitter.

Under the system proposed Tuesday night a 300-watt dual transmitter would be secured which would permit the Quick Call operator, by a flick of a switch, to transmit on one freand fire apparatus in the county, and on another frequency transand on another frequency, transmit to the various police forces,

These cars could deliver top performance with only 8 of Super Shell's 9 ingredients. But they'll soon need the ninth. Do you know why?

If car engines could stay clean as new, they'd get along fine without Shell's TCP additive. But harmful deposits start building up the moment your car leaves the showroom—and can soon cut power and mileage. TCP works to keep that from happening. Here's how.

The engine of every car on the road has combustion chamber deposits. Nothing can stop them from forming. They're the inevitable result of combustion.

If your car has only a couple of thousand miles on it you probably won't know the deposits are there. But once they've built up, they can be rough on performance. Fortunately, something can be done about that. Shell's TCP additive does it.

How deposits cause trouble Here's what can happen inside your engine. When certain types of deposits get hot enough, they can beat spark plugs to the punch and ignite the fuel themselves.

These premature explosions are forms of pre-ignition. They give your pistons a terrific hammering. Your power falls off. And so does your

Instead of purring smoothly, your engine falters-and costs you money.

Result: top performance. And as a little extra, new impower lost to harmful combustion deposits-and can add up to 17 miles per tankful.

TCP is just one of Super Shell's nine ingredients. To get an idea of how all nine contribute to top performance, run your eye over the list at the right.

And try a couple of tankfuls yourself. If you do it soon, you'll get Super Shell's Hot Weather Blend. It's specially formulated to give your car top performance in summer. And that's a reassuring thing to

#1 is TCP*-for power, mileage, and longer plug life.

#2 is Pentane mix—for fast warm-ups.

#3 is anti-knock mix--for knock resistance. #4 is Alkylate to control "high-speed knock."

#5 is Butane - for quick starts.

#6 is "cat-cracked" gasoline - for power.

#7 is an "anti-icer." Added when cold weather sets in.

#8 is gum preventive—for clean carburetors. #9 is Platformate for extra mileage.

That winding key you've been seeing lately on some Volkswagens is not standard equipment. It's put there by proud VW owners, who go around telling their friends they get 40 miles on one winding.

That isn't quite true. The correct figure is about 32 miles (regular driving), and it requires one gallon of gas. Otherwise, the winder gives you a pretty good idea of how economical it is to keep up a VW.

The Volkswagen engine in the rear is aircooled. No water to boil over in the summer. No water to freeze in the winter. No antifreeze. No radiator expenses. No radiator, Engine friction is so low that top speed and cruising speed are one and the same. A Volkswagen can run wide-open all day long without running up a repair bill. And it uses practi-cally no oil between changes.

A Volkswagen costs $1,595*, including heater and defroster. Leatherette upholstery is optional, and so are whitewall tires, a side view mirror and radio. Outside of that, we can't think of anything else you might want. Except possibly that winding key.

Come in today and take a turn . . . in a new Volkswagen, that is.
